ICCA Members win awards at IMEX 2010

The IMEX Academy Awards were presented to some of the meeting industry's brightest talents at the IMEX 2010 Gala Dinner. The ICCA member winners were:

- Asia Pacific - Suprabha Moleeratanond, Director, Thailand Convention & Exhibition Bureau
- The Americas - Greg Ortale, President & CEO, Greater Houston Convention & Visitors Bureau,
- Europe - Nik Racic, Executive Director, Croatian Convention Bureau,

This year's JMIC (Joint Meetings Industry Council) Unity Award was presented to Christian Mutschlechner, Director of the Vienna Convention Bureau for his outstanding contribution to the international meetings industry.

The IMEX Green Exhibitor Award went to the Switzerland Convention & Incentive Bureau (SCIB). The SCIB was awarded the IMEX Green Exhibitor Award 2010 in recognition of its widespread use of Swiss wood in its stand construction. The wood is a renewable resource and net remover of carbon dioxide from the atmosphere. All promotional material used at IMEX was printed carbon-neutral. In addition, all Switzerland Tourism staff, including the stand builders, travelled to Frankfurt by train to reduce carbon emissions.

Tourism Toronto won the globally recognised IMEX Commitment to the Community Award.

The IMEX AACB (Association of Australian Convention Bureau) Vin Barron award for bureaux staff went to Deborah Lonne, Coordinator, Convention Bureau, Brisbane Marketing.

The IMEX Green Supplier Gold Award, given to the supplier who has demonstrated the best effort to minimise the environmental impact of their venue or product, was presented to Adelaide Convention Centre. The Silver award was given to Brisbane Convention & Exhibition Centre.
